Zina Haywood honored with statewide instructional services award

Gateway Technical College Vice President/Provost Zina Haywood has recently been honored with the 2010 Eagle Management Leadership Award from the Wisconsin Technical Colleges Instructional Services Administrators.

“This award symbolizes the leadership Zina not only provides for our college, but also for the Wisconsin Technical College System,” said Gateway Technical College President Bryan Albrecht.

The Eagle Award is presented to individuals who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in producing significant results on behalf of the Wisconsin Technical College System.

Haywood began her Gateway career in 1993 as the college’s director of Financial Aid and was appointed in 2000 as Vice President-Student Services, a position she held until 2003, when she was named Vice President-Racine Campus. She was named to her current position in 2006.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
