

2016 Susan B. Anthony – Women of Influence Scholarship

The SBA-WOI Award Committee is offering a scholarship opportunity for a Kenosha County woman who has graduated with an Associate Degree and wishes to pursue a Baccalaureate Degree. In the spirit of Susan B. Anthony, the intent of this scholarship is to support a woman who will learn, grow, advance, and succeed through further education. The scholarship is supported by the proceeds from the Susan B. Anthony – Women of Influence Awards Dinner, which is jointly sponsored by the AAUW-Kenosha Branch, Kenosha Women's Network, and Tempo Kenosha.

This scholarship will be based on a percentage of the proceeds from the Susan B. Anthony – Women of Influence Awards Dinner and will be awarded at the annual award dinner on Friday, March 18, 2016 at the Parkway Chateau, 12304 75th Street, Kenosha. The funds will be dispersed to the recipient who will provide documentation of registration from the institution of her choice.

The woman chosen to receive the Susan B. Anthony – Women of Influence Scholarship must be a Kenosha County resident who:

- has obtained, at a minimum, an associate degree and is seeking to pursue higher education.

To be eligible, the applicant must submit the application form, provide 2 letters of recommendation which address goals, achievement, and potential, and write a personal statement telling why she is deserving of the Susan B. Anthony – Women of Influence scholarship.

Applications must be received no later than Saturday, January 30, 2016.

Applications may be obtained from: Rebecca Matoska-Mentink
