

SC Johnson iMET Center

Gateway's cutting-edge SC Johnson iMET Center serves as a next-generation training hub for career programs focused on manufacturing, engineering and information technology. As well as housing Gateway's Business and Workforce Solutions training division and the nationally-known industrial design Fab Lab.

Getting to the iMET Center

Find driving directions, printable maps and campus information at gtc.edu/campuses-centers.

Visitors can also easily get to Gateway's iMET Center located in Sturtevant via:

Airport

- Milwaukee Mitchell Field (MKE)
- Chicago O'Hare Field (ORD)
- Chicago Midway Field (MDW)

Train

- Amtrak's Hiawatha Line - Sturtevant Station

Area Accommodations

Gateway's tri-county district of Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties offers visitors a wide range of accommodations, restaurants and attractions.

Hotels:

Home2Suites by Hilton (Closest hotel to the iMET Center)
1301 West Road, Sturtevant

There are also numerous hotels located on Washington Blvd. in Racine as well as in downtown Racine. All are within a short drive of the iMET Center.

Attractions:

SE Wisconsin offers visitors a wide variety of restaurants, activities and events to enjoy during their stay.

Racine: visitracinecounty.com

Kenosha: visitkenosha.com

Walworth: gowalco.com

Gateway Technical College does not endorse any individual vendors.

SC Johnson iMET Center
2320 Renaissance Boulevard
Sturtevant, Wisconsin 53177

